Shipping Policies

Shipping rates are based on weight. Product weights are listed (in pounds) in parentheses next to the prices. The rate calculations above are estimates, and actual rates may vary (always round up to the next pound). The actual rates are often less, so we recommend that you visit our web site or call us to check. To calculate the exact rates, add the products to your cart, enter your zip code, and click Recalculate or call us and we can tell you. Call, email, or visit our web site for raw food orders or for Alaska, Hawaii, or international. Orders usually ship in 1 to 2 business days, but if it's urgent please call to confirm availability. Prices subject to change without notice. See our web site for complete customer service policies.
